COMMENTS / SPECIAL MENTIONS & SCORERS
HCC under 15's indoor cricket put together some strong individual performances and some good innings across 3 matches, but ultimately couldn't combine good work in the field and with the bat to complete the perfect performance! In their first match, they were comprehensively beaten by Exmouth and never really got off the bus, despite a late wagging of the tail through Benjamin Rich and Will Smith. In their second match against Kings, it was Jake Carters turn to shine with the bat, with Rich, Will Smith and Ben Matthews doing well with the ball, unfortunately Kings too had too much and won the match. In the final pool game, HCC played Sidmouth where there were good contributions Tom Smith with the bat and again, the experience of Carter and Rich helped to shape both the batting and fielding innings. Our final match was against Cullompton, where the team raced to 91 off 8 overs, with strong batting from Will Smith, Jake Carter, Ben Matthews and Benjamin Rich. Tom Smith then showed up well with the ball, as did Benjamin Rich getting drift and turn from the indoor cricket balls and atmosphere in the indoor dome. Despite a hairy final over, HCC just had enough to get over the line, winning by 6 runs!

Lovely day out for all involved and a special thank you for Zara Maynard, Mason Doble and Harvey Haysom who volunteered as sports leaders and helped with the umpiring all day.
